7 New Design Showrooms For Inspiration in the Northeast

The Northeast's newest design showrooms promise a captivating blend of inspiration and innovation.

LUCIFER LIGHTING

Jammie Holmes "Black Horse" (2023) complemented by Lucifer Lighting's fixture in its new showroom

Lucifer Lighting illuminates the New York City design scene with the debut of its Tribeca showroom, a stunning two-story space celebrating the brand's 45th anniversary and East Coast expansion. Blending function with artistry, the showroom is designed for versatility, effortlessly transitioning from a traditional retail to a dynamic space. Lighting designs by Renfro Design Group set the stage for an inspiring experience, enhanced by a curated selection of family artwork and custom sculptures. In collaboration with Marianne Boesky Gallery, the showroom also showcases works by artist Jammie Holmes, further elevating its creative appeal. 11 Jay St., Manhattan, luciferlighting.com
